NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee

W[illegible] Electors,

Why the Mint went to the Dalles

Some of our people are very sore at the action of Congress establishing a branch of the U S Mint at the Dalles, when our own city had a better claim to it than any other locality contiguous to the golden region They have no right to feel at all irritated at the taunts of our inland neighbor, when an overwhelming confidence in the eligibility of our location and precedence of active energy in setting forth to Washington the facts upon which our claims were based The OREGONIAN, in which the idea took form, and which first urged the claims of Portland to the Mint has of late been made the scapegoat, by some, to bear the burden of their sins of omission There is not only unjust and ungenerous, but an attempt now on the part of such persons to throw the blame upon us will prove futile as they cannot deny or obliterate the record If at the proper time, they had co-operated with us in an effort to secure the good of the greatest number there would now no long[er] be occasion for childish fits of chagrin or disappointment Our citizens are well aware that their representation in Congress had no sympathy in common with Portland, but that they were ready to dispose of our interests for political capital no matter how small

If the interior counties were smart enough to take advantage of this condition of things, while our delegation took no points to checkmate, with stubborn facts the moves openly making upon the political chessboard, we really do not see how it can be helped There is no doubt—there can be no doubt, in the mind of any intelligent and unprejudiced man, that Portland is the only place in Oregon at which the greatest public good could be effected by the establishment of a Mint It may or it may not be too late to remedy the evil already done—and the near future will demonstrate how great an evil has been wrought by this impolitic legislation—but we opine that the present time, if our people will bestir themselves to correct the evils of the late bill, by collating and forwarding, through competent representatives all important facts which should influence Congress upon the bill and location of the Mint which rightfully belongs

The location of a Mint is everybody's business and at one time, may be good, theoretically, but our views have to rest its truth practically, and not the Mint Let this be the plan of operations and a large number of the community will [illegible] purely by and for the just claims of Oregon one after another ignored, without a decided effort to counteract influence and statements from another quarters, it is hardly within the bounds of possibility that Portland will ever get any [illegible] but ours Wake, for the future, as we have been in the past, always ready to put forth every element of the city to precedence or preferment of placed in possession of such information as may be necessary to their official urging, but of late those who possess these facts would find us, they have no right to expect of us or others that they [illegible] confidential for themselves

MINT [illegible] EXPEDITION RELEASED AT THREE TREES [illegible]—A military organization was sent [illegible] off by order of Brig Gen Alvord, [illegible] mouth of Three Tree Point? Washington Territory This Point is opposite Woods [illegible] and about eight miles below Cathlamet It [illegible] 2 acres and is intended as a site for a [illegible] defence of the Columbia river It is admirably situated to command the river at a [illegible] point and where the rise and fall of [illegible] but little affected by the annual floods of Columbia We are glad that the General has thus taken time by the forelock, as there is [illegible] long what lame Point speculations might [illegible] succeeded in damning and rob the Government at some future time, when an occasion for its use that occupation arrived Gen Alvord is keenly alive to the interests of our Government and McDowell will find in him a hearty co-operator in every measure calculated to promote the [illegible] cause

HON T A COLLIER —The many friends of the ex-mayor gentlemen will join us in regretting his sudden and unexpected demise at his home in Oregon City, on Sunday last His health has been poor for several years, but he had attended to business, and thrice served as a member of the State Legislature We are informed that on Sunday, observing some chickens in his garden, he walked out for the purpose of driving them away In the act of projecting some light missile to frighten them, he fell to the ground and expired before assistance could reach him We publish elsewhere a series of resolutions passed by the I O O F Lodge of which he was an honored and honorable member

OREGON SUFFERERS FROM THE ALABAMA —The Statesman in noticing the damage done to commerce by the Anglo Rebel pirate Alabama, says that the bark Tycoon, which was captured by her some months ago, had on board a large amount of iron doors, shutters, &c for Griswold's Block, in this town, consigned to Heath, Dearborn & Co, and an invoice of goods, valued at $1 000 belonging to Hon J B Underwood of Eugene City. The losers have their consolation, small though it be in knowing that the British Government ought to pay it whether it ever does or not LARGE BAND OF CATTLE —The Statesman says that seven hundred head of beef cattle crossed the river at that place on the 10th inst en route for the northern mines. They belonged to Whaley of Polk.

The Journal of Commerce says that nobody wants the Chicago nomination That shows that there is a glimmer of sense yet among them—nobody' candidates

GOOD NEWS!

Passage of Fort Morgan by our Fleet.

Surrender of Fort Gaines.

OUR FLAG FLIES THERE

Rebel Ram Tennessee Surrenders after a Sharp Engagement.

ADM'L BUCHANAN WOUNDED AND TAKEN PRISONER.

FT. POWELL EVACUATED.

Confirmation by Many's Official Report to Rebel Secretary of War.

The Capture of Mobile confidently Expected.

Another Terrific Fight before Petersburg.

DEFEAT OF REBELS BY AVERILL.

Capture of Gen. Johnson and Staff, 600 [illegible]

Sheridan after the Rebels in Shenandoah Valley.

REBEL INVASION AT AN END.

NEW YORK, August 8 —The supply steam transport from Mobile reports that the iron clad Manhattan, with a full head of steam, went close in under Sand Island to encounter the rebel ram Tennessee which was at anchor 2½ miles distant with other iron and cotton clads There were a number of our vessels off the harbor with a heavy armament Officers and crews were ready and anxious to force an entrance into the Bay

WASHINGTON, August 8 —A dispatch from Gen Butler to the President says Richmond papers of this morning have the following

Norfolk, August 5—To [illegible] Seddon Secretary of War —Seventeen of the enemy's vessels, 14 ships and 2 iron clads, passed Fort Morgan this morning The Tennessee was sunk in passing Th iron clad Tennessee surrendered after an desperate engagement Admiral Buchanan lost a leg and is a prisoner The Selma was captured The Gaines was beached near the Hospital The Morgan escaped and will try to run up to night The enemy's fleet is approaching the city A Monitor has been engaging Fort Powell at Grant's Pass all day

(Signed) D H MAURY, Maj Gen

NEW YORK, August 9 —The Commercial's Washington special says There was great exultation over the news from Mobile The blockade broken up, several of our best gunboats will be released The sinking of the Tecumseh is discredited

A private dispatch says News received from rebel sources is encouraging and the capture of Mobile is confidently expected We learn from the front that great excitement exists among the rebels at Atlanta and Richmond

It is thought that Sherman will take advantage of the confusion of the rebels and force a battle

The announcement of Averill's victory in the Shenandoah Valley is confirmed His loss slight

WASHINGTON, August 8 —An Army of the Potomac letter, dated Saturday (6 h), says A party of Invalids started to come into our lines yesterday Our gunners, not knowing their intentions, opened fire upon them, killing several The remainder arrived as headquarters at noon, some of them badly wounded

NEW YORK, August 9 —The Petersburg correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer says The rebels are moving, [illegible] at least Their [illegible] and [illegible] are moving [illegible] Yesterday [illegible] Headquarters from the battery [illegible] Hargrove was all quiet on the front

BUTLER'S ARMY, August 8th —The Petersburg correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer says The rebels are moving, [illegible] at least Their [illegible] and [illegible] are moving [illegible] Yesterday [illegible] Headquarters from the battery [illegible] Hargrove was all quiet on the front

The Washington Star has the following from a gentleman who arrived on Saturday from Rogers Town, where he has been sojourning during the two weeks past, with [illegible] interesting particulars of the doings of the rebels in that vicinity after the rebels took possession of the city They proceeded to institute a thorough search of the stores The merchants had not taken time to conceal their stocks since the former visit of the rebels They got but little with the exception of a small quantity of shoes and hats At the grocery stores they filled all the canteens with sugar and their canteens with molasses At one or two [illegible] they turned all the molasses out and let it run into the street A train of cars was reported [illegible] having been turned by them but it now appears that it was destroyed by our troops

NEW YORK, Aug 9 —A special to the Herald, dated Washington the 8th says The invasion proves to have subsided

Yesterday it was confidently believed that a battle would take place upon the old Sharpsburg ground on that vicinity But now it is believed that the rebels had given them upon finding how large a force was ready to contest them march into Pennsylvania With the recent changes in Maryland and the present disposition of our forces it will not be possible for the rebels to get as far as the Pennsylvania line without a desperate battle in which the odds will be against them

A heavy cavalry force, heretofore under Grant is now concentrated on the upper Potomac and instead of a rebel invasion of Pennsylvania it is much more likely to bear of the march of a heavy Federal column down the valley of the Shenandoah

Gen Wright's command, at last accounts, were at Boonesboro, south of Mountain Valley

The country may rest assured that the invasion is over for the present

Another special dispatch to the Herald says that the rebel movement on the upper Potomac was a feint to cover the sending, it is supposed, of not less than 20,000 of [illegible] reinforce Atlanta (?) Much apprehension is felt in regard to the matter

The Herald's special dispatches say that Grant has returned from the upper Potomac and started for City Point

Last Night's Dispatches.

BUFFALO, Aug 9 —The Provost Marshal of this city was led to believe that the rebels in Canada had organized a conspiracy to burn Buffalo and destroy the locks at Lockport The matter was laid before Gen Dix who said he was aware of the existence of such a plot, but was unable to provide for the means to effect it Dix advised that measures be taken by the citizens to defend themselves

The Mayor has protested against the removal of the 17th regiment

NEW YORK, Aug 10 —The Tribune's Washington special says Chief Engineer Lat ner arrived this morning from the fleet off Mobile, who reports that when he left active preparations were making for an immediate action, and describes Fort Morgan as a brick structure on the Sumpter plan bunker with sand The fleet is considered impregnable, but being passed can readily be reduced by an attack in the rear We shall doubtless hear of its capture or evacuation in a day or two

Special dispatches from Farragut are expected to-morrow His plan was not to attempt to capture the city, but only to relieve a portion of the large fleet which had been stationed there for the past six months

Many's statement that the Tecumseh was sunk is totally discredited at the Navy Department The vessel was not likely to engage the fort and no chance shot could have sunk her.

The same correspondent says It is generally believed in the Army of the Potomac that Gen Lee has sent Long street's corps to Hood's assistance

The Times special of the 9th says A Cabinet meeting was held to day, at which questions of State policy of more than ordinary interest and importance were discussed

NEW YORK, Aug 10 —Gens Meade and Burnside each cast the blame on the other for the repulse at Petersburg It appears that owing to the modification of an order the night previous, there was a misunderstanding as to who should superintend the attack and neither was present to take command

The Herald's correspondent near Atlanta says the operations around that city have settled into a regular siege

We are pounding away on every side and it is doomed to be shon reduced.

The rebels garrison the forts and intrenchments with militia and use the veterans to operate when they are required, their line running so that they can be massed with great rapidity

Yesterday a demonstration was made along the line which resulted in driving the rebels back to their intrenchments We gained their rifle pits and captured a part of corps of nearly twelve hundred men

The rebels cannot continue long in Atlanta If they continue shutting against our works they will soon wear themselves out without doing much hurt to us and run the risk of losing their communications upon which we are operating The Macon line is the only left, and it is reported that it have destroyed [illegible] it so, we have got them if they can't break through our lines somewhere

We are so powerfully intrenched that a single man will be able to hold the works against any assault.

The Hibernian, from Liverpool July 28th, has arrived

It is reported that nine months armistice has been agreed upon at Vienna

THE FIRE.—On Monday morning [illegible] Mr. Ingalsbee [illegible] highly respected citizen of Multnomah [illegible] has own house by George [illegible] President of the city [illegible] Printer [illegible] ordered to leave Indiana [illegible] and [illegible] turned in a few minutes [illegible], and shut Mr. [illegible] closing [illegible] or against the [illegible] had passed through [illegible] the body of Ingalsbee [illegible] and was a promising [illegible] Masonic [illegible] body [illegible] city by the steamer Wide [illegible] charge of a delegation of the [illegible] to be taken to San Francisco for [illegible] and several children [illegible] mourned, and was in all guarded [illegible] seemed to manifest much indifference [illegible] recently been acting as the Deputy [illegible] Multnomah County. CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.—Our attention has been directed to an important matter that will no doubt prove a good investment for a small capital. [illegible] that blocks of sand are to be found in this city, of superior qualities for manufacturing [illegible] and the process not being attended with any [illegible] expense, the only the plan of establishing [illegible] Oregon Glass Works, would be as feasible [illegible] as it is striking us was that of the Willamette Salt Works, which bids fair to pay largely.

COUNTY ASSESSMENT.—The County Assessor, Mr. John Dolan, is now engaged in making the assessment for Multnomah county for the ensuing year. The books, for the description of property, real and personal with the total valuation, will be given each resident and an order that the returns may be [illegible] season, the 1st Monday in September. This will be the case until the fall rains shall raise the river.

THE CASCADES.—The Lewiston Journal says the steamboat built at Umatilla W. T. says the British Columbian of August 3d has been named The Cascades. Steam was raised in her boilers a few days since and the engines worked satisfactorily. We expect to see her in Portland before the close of September.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the summer season the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal canal the membrane lining the surface is in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and fermenting articles of food.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. When it is brightly palatable as a beverage it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been wanted at the mines. Its bulk will not be so much of a deranged stomach impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the enemy of all stimulants. Let the miner who has eaten hot and dry, wet and cold be certain to obtain and use the genuine Hostetter Bitters and he will find a sure safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. jy2daw

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage, that which if neglected would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhœa, are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same [illegible] cause. NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®

A SINGULAR INCIDENT —The Boston Gazette tells a strange story, which briefly amounts to this Twenty years ago a gentleman of this city, on his way West to settle, stopped in New York and was robbed at his hotel of $2 000 in gold He soon made up the loss in his western home, and when the war broke out had a handsome property Although too old to enlist he was patriotic, and was appointed Brigade Quartermaster One night, on a march, his brigade arrived in a small town in Alabama, and according to custom the Quartermaster took possession of the tavern for general headquarters In conversation with the landlord he discovered that the latter kept the hotel in New York where and when he was robbed With the purpose of having some fun the Quartermaster arranged a mock Court martial and arraigned the landlord, charging him with the robbery To his intense astonishment the frightened landlord confessed the crime, and was at once given the option of restoring the money or dying at sunrise He naturally chose the former, and forked over the principal and a part of the interest in gold, which the lucky Quartermaster at once invested in United States securities

A SCENE IN CONGRESS —The Washington correspondent of the Boston Daily Advertiser says

'As Joseph Bailey, of Pennsylvania, one of the four Democrats, who had the patriotism to vote for the constitutional amendment prohibiting slavery, was answering to his name on that question, a copperhead his colleague, Coffroth, who was passing at the time, laid his hand heavily upon Bailey's head and drew it down over his face, accompanying the action with words abusive of Bailey's vote and not fit to be printed Bailey suddenly forgetting his Quaker principles, seized Coffroth, who is much the larger man, by the collar, drew his head down and dealt him a powerful blow under the ear, which sent him reeling against the opposite desk Coffroth laid down his arms

FOREIGN STUDENTS —A Swabian student of the College of Heidelberg grossly insulted a foreign student Satisfaction was demanded but instead of fighting in the usual way they drew lots to see which of the two should destroy himself within a fortnight The lot fell on the Swabian, when his time had elapsed his father was dangerously ill, and he asked an extension of the time It was given and he, according to agreement, shot himself in the region of the heart Some hopes are entertained that the wound will not prove fatal, but all entreaties cannot extort from him a promise not to repeat the desperate act To all solicitations his only answer is 'I have not pledged my honor to seriously wound myself but to put an end to my life, and I will keep my promise'

In a recent number of the Leipsic Medical Gazette there is a case of successfully practised transfusion of animal blood into a human subject, twelve ounces from the vein of a lamb having been injected with benefit to a local patient"

The first American flag ever raised in this country was on exhibition at the great Sanitary Fair in Philadelphia It was hoisted by Paul Jones on board the frigate Bon Homme Richard, and afterwards transferred to the frigate Alliance

It is stated in the St Louis Republican of the 16th ultimo that Gen Butler has been invested with the command of Fortress Monroe and retired from the field Gen W F (Baldy) Smith commands the troops of the Department of North Carolina and Virginia

HENRY TRACY, a citizen of Hancock County, East Tennessee, died on the 18th of April, 1864. He was about forty six years of age, six feet six inches high and weight 600 pounds For many years previous to his death he had not left his home
